Triple Zero – 000

Triple zero calls are free.

When you call Triple Zero (000):

- do you want police, fire or ambulance?
- stay calm, don't shout, speak slowly and clearly.
- say exactly where to come - give an address or location.

Examples of when to call:

- someone is seriously injured or in need of urgent medical help
- your life or property is being threatened
- you have just witnessed a serious accident or crime.

Emergency calls from mobile phones

- Call Triple Zero (000) as normal.
- If Triple Zero (000) doesn't work, call 112.
- You don't need credit on your mobile phone to call Triple Zero (000) or 112 - it's always free.

Locked handset

You can call Triple Zero (000) without having to unlock the keypad or key in a PIN.

Translation Service

If you have difficulty understanding English you can ask for an interpreter once you have been transferred to the emergency service you requested. This service is free.

Your location

When you call Triple Zero (000) on your mobile, it won't automatically give your exact location.

If you don't know your exact location, using the Emergency+ app to call Triple Zero (000) can assist. The app provides you with GPS coordinates which you can tell the emergency call-taker.

The Emergency+ app is available to download free of charge from
